

Manual Machinist

Job Type: Permanent – Full Time

Industry/Sub-industry: Aerospace & Defense/Aircraft Support Equipment Company

Career Level: Experienced

Salary: Based on Experience, plus frequent overtime.

1st Shift and 2nd Shift – (2nd shift includes 10% Shift Differential (3:00 PM - 11:20 PM))

Location: 7341 Tulip St, Philadelphia, PA, 19136 US

Winner of the Philadelphia Top Workplaces in 2020

Job Description:

- Machine set-ups, scheduling & production planning
- Train machinists on machine operation, safety, manufacturing inspection, and best practices
- Operates production machinery in accordance with prints and specifications. Assigned machines may include lathes, grinders, mills, and similar equipment.
- Produces the required quantity of parts within established specifications and tolerances.
- Measures finished parts with precision tools, ensuring compliance with function, quality, and cosmetic specifications.
- Maintains logs and records of units produced including a record of errors resulting in rejected or discarded pieces.
- Inspects equipment prior to use to ensure proper setup and alignment; performs basic and routine adjustments and maintenance.

Requirements:

- Vocational education (preferred) and/or progressive meaningful experience
- 5+ years of experience of high-precision, high-tech and close-tolerance manufacturing environments
- Ability to interpret and translate engineering designs and documentation.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills.
- Excellent leadership and team building skills

Benefits:

- Paid Time Off & Company Paid Holidays
- Competitive Medical, Dental, Vision Insurance Plans
- 401k Retirement Plan includes Company Match & Profit Sharing
- Company Paid Short-Term Disability